Registrations continue to increase as well as a demand for new books

Two assistants supplied by the N.Y.A. continue part time service - without this help it would be difficult to keep up with the work.

The shelves were crowded but with the elimination of some old and useless books it has been possible to manage fairly well.

I am grateful for the vacation afforded me this latter part of August.

Miss Susie Banks called and asked that thanks be expressed to the Library Directors for their kindness in past years regarding mortgage
